

Sound Proof Room

Elle Varner

I try to be strong
Try to turn down the desire I've been hiding so long
I don't wanna play
The innocent game
Like I don't have animal ways, just like you
I wanna do something we ain't suppose to
It's hard to resist
But most of my day is spent dreaming of your kiss
Can you imagine what would happen if we give in to this magnetic attraction?
Baby you should know that if I ever get you alone...

Me and you, Me and you, Boy we're gonna need a soundproof room
Me and you, Me and you, Boy we're gonna need a soundproof room
Wooo , Boy we're gonna need a soundproof room

I'm surely a lady
But I'm not a stranger to badly behaving sometimes
Crossing the line
Doing what I know is wrong cause it feels so right
Sneaking away for something extracurricular on a lunch break
With that being said, I'm ready to try what's been playing inside of my head
Want you to demonstrate your physical advantage, Am I sounding like a savage?
I'm not a quitter, I won't give up till I get it, Baby I just gotta have it...

Me and you, Me and you, Boy we're gonna need a soundproof room
Me and you, Me and you, Boy we're gonna need a soundproof room
Wooo , Boy we're gonna need a soundproof room

I never usually
Say such crazy things
I can't control myself
What have you done to me?
Or more importantly
What am I gonna do to you?

Me and you, Me and you, (If I get you in a soundproof room)
Me and you, Me and you, (Woo, If I get in you in a soundproof room)

(Hey, Yeah, Oh I wanna get you in a soundproof room... Oh, I gonna get you in a soundproof... Whoa, I'm get you in a soundproof room)
