

Wishing Well

Elle Varner

I couldn't drive home
I had to take a side road
Suddenly all the things I knew
Turned to shame livin' with you
Day one's turned into day nine
It was crazy, it ain't no fun
But in the end, you see, I won
Still got all of my love

And even though it hurt like hell
I cried tears in the wishing well
I still wish you well
I still, I still wish you well
Even though it hurt like hell
I cried tears, filled a wishing well
I still wish you well
I still, I still wish you well

I had a blind man's view
Wish I knew, wish I knew
That I couldn't put my trust in you
But I got my things and walked out
And I'm doin' a thousand times better now
Let me show you how

'Cause even though it hurt like hell
Cried tears, filled a wishing well
I still wish you well
I still, I still wish you well
Even though it hurt like hell (Though it hurt like hell)
Cried tears, filled a wishing well (I still wish you well)
I still wish you well (I still wish you well)
I still, I still wish you well
