

Comfortable

Emarosa

How can I be comfortable when you lay
You lay with me?
How can I be comfortable when you lay
You lay with me?

It's all the same, another name
Baby, I'm falling apart
But your love for me is lingering
And I can't help but feel things I'll never know

It's a white lie, it's a white lie I believe
And that's exactly what I want it to be
It's a white lie, it's a white lie I believe
And that's exactly what I wanted

Why can't I be faithful now
When she lays
She lays with him?
Why can't I be faithful now
When she lays
She lays with him?

It's a white lie, it's a white lie I believe
And that's exactly what I want it to be
It's a white lie, it's a white lie I believe
And that's exactly what I wanted

It's all the same, another name
Baby, I'm falling apart
But your love for me is lingering
It's lingering

It's a white lie, it's a white lie I believe
And that's exactly what I want it to be
(That's exactly what I want)
It's a white lie, it's a white lie I believe
And that's exactly what I wanted
(Exactly what I want)
