

Hold Heart

Emiliana Torrini

Hold heart don't beat so loud
For me keep your calm
As he walks out on you

No tears don't you come out
If you blind me now
I am defeated

No lips don't make a sound
Don't let him hear
The break in your voice

Hand let go of his
With ease n' grace
Don't let him bleed
Under your nails

Oh lord take of thy crown
You're my king no more
With that merciless heart

Hold heart don't beat so loud
For me keep your calm
As he walks out on you

No tears don't you come out
If you blind me now
I am defeated
