

I Hate the Homecoming Queen

Emily Osment

Little short skirt
With a big attitude
She wants to be a model
Wants to be on the tube, yeah

It's one thing or another
She's a trouble, trouble
Watch out if you're near
She can bring you to tears

She's got two boyfriends
And three wannabes
They follow her around
Like she's Aphrodite

Yeah, she's number one rated
But she's already jaded
And she's following the trends
In her Mercedes Benz

Everyone wants to know her name
Walking down the hall she's every guys dream

I hate the homecoming queen
I'm pretty damn sure that she can't stand me
She thinks she's on the cover of a magazine
I hate the homecoming queen tonight, that's right

Non fat, sugar free
Mochachinies, she says
"Give it to me now
You can keep the receipts"

Drinking one after the other
She's a trouble, trouble
Tossing back her hair
And she just don't care

Everyone wants to play her game
Walking down the street she's every guys dream

I hate the homecoming queen
I'm pretty damn sure that she can't stand me
She thinks she's on the cover of a magazine
I hate the homecoming queen tonight, that's right

She gets everything she asks for
But she's some how always wanting more

Little short skirt
With a big attitude
She wants to be a model

It's one thing or another
She's trouble, trouble
Watch out if you're near

She can bring you to tears

I hate the homecoming queen
I'm pretty damn sure that she can't stand me

I hate the homecoming queen
I'm pretty damn sure that she can't stand me
Yeah, yeah
