

Head Down

End of Green

Up and down, with a smile of my own
Feel alone, like a dog without a home
I changed my ways, like a bird's fly every day
I'm on my knees, like a priest who can't believe

Up and down, with a smile of my own
Feel alone, like a dog without a home
I changed my ways, like a bird's fly every day
I'm on my knees, like a priest who can't believe
And I'd be far, like a distant satellite
I'm on the stars, a mile of reach tonight

I am with my head down
I am with my head down
With my head down On my knees

I am with my head down
With my head down

With my head down, on my knees

I'm standing over the edge I'll soon let go
I'm stuck in these days I won't let go

I'm feeling so lonely so dark on my own
I'm counting the days when I am alone
Noone can hear me and nobody saw or cared tonight

I'm feeling so lonely so dark on my own
I'm counting the days when I am alone
Noone can hear and nobody saw or cared tonight

And I am with my head down
With my head down
With my head down, on my knees

And I am with my head down
With my head down
With my head down, on my knees
