Standing by In line Another job For real If you could make One deal Choice is yours All real It leaves you cold Like I ...and all your luggage Don't deny If I could die Now is the time I told you so I told you why

One need and fear to lose my mind
I told you so
This ain't for me
I want to yell
No more
My dreams will take one step too far
They disappear
This ain't for me
I want to yell
No more

Waiting while
You define
What I'm I to you
Stepping on 45
Another look
Through you
Like a film
Without a sound
Black and white
Unconnected
If I could die
Now is the time
I told you so
I told you why

This ain't your life Praise you hold inside One step too far You tell yourself you are
