

True Love At Last

Engelbert Humperdinck

Don't go away yet
I haven't felt this dead in years
This room's full of people
With drinks in their hands, and nothing but nothing to say

Don't go away yet
It seems like everyone I love is gone
I'm praying for some kind of change
Nothing's changed, and nothing will change

Don't leave me now, you are the only thing left to believe in Don't let me down, you are the last thing that I feel complete in

Don't go away yet
True love is dying off
Where everyone is searching
I'm just a face in the crowd

Said you wanted distance, this is what you get
The distance was half near far enough
(I could take it all if you come back, I dreamed of you and it came true)
