

A Million Voices

Engineers

I won't hold you back if you wanna leave
The best thing I can say to you is go
The words you said cut through an icy breeze
The last thing I will say to you is don't

And this is why I can hear a million voices cry
There's a reason this has to be

So just walk away as I make my pleas
And time may freeze behind this open door
Then a voice will float so softly on the breeze
Singing you're not welcome anymore
Maybe we are better off this way
Everything has its time and place

And this is why I can hear a million voices cry
There's a reason this has to be
