

Carnage

Entombed

Through blood and cement
Across dimensions vast
The fuse of Big Bang number to
Is burning fast
Hark ye all
Beneath the treadmill's spell
Lift you heads for all ain't well

Awake ye now to hear the sound
As feet with claws
Tread holy ground
The dogs of hell
Free from their straps
Behind their steps
All laws collapse
The laws that govern
The laws that chain
Nourishment for world insane
Downward spiral vortex twist
In blazing speed the devil's fist

What once was again shall be
Behold the dark emissary of Carnage
Carnage in the house of god
Carnage
Walls adorned with
Tears and blood
And as if the devil bred
Dogs they chew upon the dead
Banquet served in tombs exhumed
Commemorate the living doomed

By the love of god
And moral codes
Will they still sing
When the world explodes?

Through blood and cement
Across dimensions vast
The fuse of Big Bang number to
Is burning fast
Hark ye all
Beneath the treadmill's spell
Lift your heads and welcome hell
Lift your heads and welcome hell

Carnage
Carnage in the house of god
Carnage
Walls adorned with
Tears and blood
And as if the devil bred
Dogs they chew upon the dead
For flesh shall be
As flesh consumed
In the stomach of

The beast entombed

By the love of god
And moral codes
Will they still sing
