

No Different

Epik High

You say I've changed
I'm acting strange

You say I've changed
And I feel like someone
That you don't know

I'm acting strange
Doin' things we used
To do on the dolo

This ain't a game that we playin'
Zeroes on our scoreboard

You say I've changed
And I feel like someone
That you don't know

I know that something's wrong
I don't know where you've gone
Feel like somebody
Somebody I don't know anymore
You know I've been there too
I've felt the way you do
But still you gotta believe
That baby you and me

Baby you and me ain't no different
We are one and the same
The two of us
We suffer the same condition
Love

Baby you and me ain't no different
We were little insane
But just enough
We suffer the same condition
Love

Love

I miss us
Oh Jesus
I miss your smile and laugh

We tried to build a future
All we got's a broken past

Not much of me is left
But I promise if you come back

I might not be the one
Could you settle for half

Heartbreak two pieces
One I'll take one's with you

Heartbreak two pieces
One I'll take one's with you

Heartbreak two pieces

And half of yours is with me
We ain't no different you see

Baby you and me ain't no different
We are one and the same
The two of us
Love

Baby you and me ain't no different
We were little insane
But just enough
Love
