Uhh yeah knahmean?

Just kick back in the studio with my man E Double ?

Yeah yeah

Just thinkin back to yo how large we'd be knahmean?

Yeah to them cats out there hustlin them demos

Keep the faith keep hustlin knahmean E?

Yeah yeah yeah

I'ma lace em like this check it

Verse One: Parrish Smith

I was coolin in my car one day you see Clockin a double nickel on the L-I E When it dawned on us that it was, ten o'clock Turned on the tunes to hear the DJ rock The hands got to clappin, the fingers start to snappin E now was coolin, Brooklyn spirits we was snappin Comin in and out of fantasies on how large we can get Coolin in rocks and Benzes with the ground effect kits I wanted black, E was on the two-tone Stupid boomin system with the hand-free phone The dream gets better and I would like to go on but I was brought back to reality by a toot of a horn Smoke everywhere, oh just what we needed A meeting at twelve, and the car overheated Feelin real low, low enough to die Holdin up traffic, on the FDR drive We had to play ourselves, in the fresh dipped gear E Double had to push while MD steered There went our dreams, to cool with golden limos And alls we kept sayin was please listen to my demo (listen to my demo)

Please listen to my demo (3X) Please-please-please-please listen to my demo

Verse Two: Erick Sermon

In the year eighty-seven when we first took off Then I jumped on P-6-8 and broke North Walked the big city streets of Manhattan Buildings, the whole nine yards, so enchantin Thinkin if we got a chance, we could rock it Funky fresh demo tape in my pocket We was walkin, and got dissed twice today Then we stopped at 1974 Broadway We walked in with grins on our chins And P had juice with Mr. Virgil Simms He played the tape and we started to laugh Played ?if it was sock? innocent from backstabs People start to smile inside we buckwhylin Sayin this all started back from freestylin They liked it, and they was very kind But me and P was like, "Yo G, where do we sign?" Went in the backroom, things was luvy duvy Met Ron Resnick, and his partner Juggy It felt good, as I remembered We signed the dotted line, now we Fresh Record members Had dreams, of fancy cars and limos
And I wanted was somebody, to listen to my demo

Please listen to my demo
Please-please-please-ple-please listen to my demo
Please listen to my demo
Please-please-please-ple-please listen to my demo
Please listen to my demo
listen to my demo
listen to my demo
demo, d-d-d-demo, demo, d-d-demo demo, demo, hah, Millenium Ducats, peace
