

Autumn fullmoon
Honour the dead ones

Alvablot

In times of darkness embrace the silence and peace
The leaves have fallen on the last of fullmoons

Alvablot

Autumn fullmoon
Honour the dead ones
Autumn fullmoon
The time is here to remember all that died
Honour the dead ones
By the graves of my loved I can cleanse my mind

While nature is falling asleep, I will find my peace
I know that we will meet again, all that decays will rise again

Awaken underneath us, the spirits of our dead
Please give us comfort while preparing for winter times

Alvablot

Autumn fullmoon
Honour the dead ones
Autumn fullmoon
Thoughts of death in the month of goddess Hel
Honour the dead ones
From my heart please accept my sacrifice

While nature is falling asleep
I will find my peace
I know that we will meet again
All that decays will rise again
