Dear John Letter

Ernest Tubb

Dear John oh how I hate to write dear John I must let you know tonight That my love for you has died away like grass upon the lawn And tonight I wed another dear John I was overseas in battle when the mail called up to me And they handed me a letter why I was happy as could be For the fighting was all over and the battle had been won Then I opened up the letter and that started Dear John Dear John oh how I hate to write Will you please send back my picture my husband wants it now And when I tell you who I'm marrying well you won't care dear a nyhow Now the ceremony has started and I'll wed your brother Don Will you wish us happiness forever dear John

And tonight I wed another dear John
