

Crossing the Last Frontier

Escape With Romeo

Like a crowded station 21 century
restless like an insect I long for tranquility

Mysteries of joy and pain
start to disappear
now I'm moving forward
crossing the last frontier

I see the light explode and shadow membranes tremble left without a trace of love and nothing to assemble

start to disappear
crossing the last frontier
I 've left the shore and I wouldn't shed a tear
now I'm moving forward
