

Ego Machine

Escape With Romeo

After the situation breaks I'm still here in this scene no one sees no one cares they all got an ego machine

Ego machine

Just like robots in designer clothes slaves of their own narrow views everybody's dancing with themselves I've got nothing left to loose

Ego machine

Through your own maze you cannot see what happens with others what happens with me
the lie of individuality your freedom means prison to me

Ego machine

Destroy the machine !

(As sick as elvis
as blind as god is)
