

If Seeing Is Believing

Escape With Romeo

I'm riding in your saddle sleeping in your bed I'm dancing with your shadow and live inside your head like rhythm in loneliness and style in desperation I'm a cloud without water Or a prophet without a mission

Ref:
If seeing is believing
I've lost my faith in you so many bridges burned behind us so many miracles we've gone through

Like the sad performance of society
Your bitter smile is all I can see

like a relationship that turned into a crime love and order couldn't be the same

Ref:

I'm just a pale vampire Sucking lust
From a world that has crumbled to dust

Ref:

living in a cruel world is living without you
The Godz look down on us

and talk in another, cryptic language from a distant exile

as we cross the border to sleep
half human half robot can I dream in another cryptic language?

as strange fascinations whirl us around grotesque and silent too fast to be seen in the secret gardens of the unconscious will I dream in your cryptic language? shall I breathe in your cryptic language? might I sing in your cryptic language?

as you look down on us
