

Prisoner of Your Love

Escape With Romeo

Between pleasure and pain how should I draw the line when it ends up in nowhere can I be happy again ?

you hold me with no balls and chains you just think of me I wonder how I ever survived when you are away from me

I'm a prisoner of your love a prisoner of your love like a beggar in a rich man's world like a slave between the free with enough money to spend but living in poverty

How could I ever fall so deep while I was flying so high without control but great ideas
I thought I could touch the sky

I'm a prisoner of your love

without control but great ideas

a prisoner of your love...
