

Rattle in Our Cages

Escape With Romeo

It cuts like a razor blade thoughts that made us feel so great we left dreams hidden in our eyes and excuses that sound like cheap alibis sanity is your new assistant cruel like the gun in your hand we look at every new sensation that's made up by a tv station

we thought rebellion
could last for ages
all we can do now
is rattle in our cages

here comes rebellion

is this rebellion ?
here comes rebellion
rattle in our cages
