

Teenager Factory

Escape With Romeo

I want everything
I don't want to wait and when the chance comes don't want to hesitate don't want to keep my dreams hidden inside
I want to see them come true a fire in the night

Teenager factory
that's where I want o be Teenager factory

Heaven on the turntables purgatory in your eyes all is built around illusion and bright shining lies that doesn't matter
I flirt with the unknown
I reach the state of ecstasy and all my problems gone

Teenager factory
Teenager factory
