

Eighteen Years Old

Esmée Denters

18 years old
I'm supposed to know what I want
So much pressure at once
Finally adult
What I've been waiting for

But I don't know at all where I wanna go
Who I wanna be
What I wanna do with my life
So many questions all at the same time like
What's the reason that I'm here for?
What's life about?
Maybe when I get older I'll figure it

You can call me lost if you'd like
You can tell me girl that is life
Cause what is wrong can be right
Through someone else's eye
But I gotta
Make the choice on my own
Now that I am grown
Gotta move out of this childhood zone
