

Minimalist

Esmée Denters

I'd like to own a house one day with a garden
A place that we can call our own, live happily
Maybe we'll even have a car, drive to the ocean
So we can go anywhere we please

I like all of the clothes that I wear and the books that I read
So many things that I collected over the years
But if I had to choose between all I can see or what I feel for you
It would be so easy

Call me a minimalist, 'cause I don't need a lotta stuff
When it comes to you, darling, I could never get enough
So call me a minimalist, 'cause I don't need a lot of things
As long as I got you, I won't be missing anything

No one knows what the future brings, it's uncertain
Never really knowing where it is we stand
The world can be a lonely place, so confusing
But when I'm in your arms, suddenly it makes sense

There's not a single thing that could replace the way that you make me feel, no
There's no amount of money that can buy me a love that is this real
Now I know why they say the best things in life come for free
'Cause you're the only essential I need

So call me a minimalist, 'cause I don't need a lotta stuff
When it comes to you, darling, I could never get enough
So call me a minimalist, 'cause I don't need a lot of things
As long as I got you, I won't be missing anything

If tomorrow, it all gets taken away
And everything changes, our love will remain
Call me a minimalist 'cause I don't need a lotta stuff
When it comes to you, darling I could never, ever, ever get eno ugh

Oh, yeah yeah yeah
So call me a minimalist

'Cause out of all the places that I been
People that I've seen
I ain't ever met someone like you
Yeah, out of all the places that I've been
People that I've seen
I ain't ever met someone like you
