

Sad Symphony

Esmée Denters

Did anybody hear that
There's a string that just broken my heart
I can feel it
And the sound of it tears me apart
Play it again
Cause I don't recognize this song anymore
Can you make it sound like it did before?

It's the same old melody
And I can't stand what you do to me
Why you keep strumbling on the strings of my heart
It beats like a
But you stole that away from me
I shouldve known it right from the start
Oh baby

All I know is I don't wanna hurt no more
All I know is this song needs a different chorus
Cause there's so many times that I feel like we've been hit before
I stay crying when you walk out the door
I hear a sad, sad symphony
A sad, sad symphony
It's like a sad, sad symphony
I hear a sad, sad symphony

Somebody save me
Cause I'm surrounded by all of these sounds
It's driving me crazy
Cause you're playing me way too loud
All I hear is noise
Now I can't hear my own voice
Now I, I didn't wanna tell you so
But you're bringing me down
Bringing me down

It's the same old melody
And I can't stand what you do to me
Why you keep strumbling on the strings of my heart
It beats like a
But you stole that away from me
I should've known it right from the start
Oh baby

All I know is I don't wanna hurt no more
All I know is this song needs a different chorus
Cause there's so many times that I feel like we've been hit before
I stay crying when you walk out the door
I hear a sad, sad symphony
A sad, sad symphony
It's like a sad, sad symphony
I hear a sad, sad symphony

The song in my head's playing everywhere I go
It's taking the beat from my heart
I wanna hear the outcome
But I guess we're stuck
Cause I already know this part

And it seems we just can't get past the start

All I know is I don't wanna hurt no more

All I know is this song needs a different chorus

Cause there's so many times that I feel like we've been hit before

I stay crying when you walk out the door

I hear a sad, sad symphony

A sad, sad symphony

It's like a sad, sad symphony

I hear a sad, sad symphony
