

I'm Gonna Win

Estelle

Started up as a church girl
(They said [?])
They said that I was a bookworm
(They said that probably teachers will adore ya)
Then I heard when they swore
And everything has seemed so easy
Cause music has made me happy

I owe it to you
I didn't think one day
You'll be the person I listen to all you say
Can I thank you for
Help me to reach the sky

Told me to hold up
Told me to be strong
All the time you helped me to not fall apart
And you popped me to the stars

Tried to be a good girl
(It wasn't until my future that I let it go)
It had to do with my ego
Then I heard when they said
Listen to me, forget what they said
And everything has seemed so easy
Cause music has made me happy

I owe it to you
I didn't think one day
You'll be the person I listen to all you say
Can I thank you for
Help me to reach the sky

Told me to hold up
Told me to be strong
All the time you helped me to not fall apart
And you popped me to the stars

Gonna win
I'm gonna do it
I'm gonna reach for the skies
I'm gonna win
I already knew it
I had all reasons to try

Gonna win
I'm gonna do it
I'm gonna reach for the skies
I'm gonna win
I already knew it

Thank you, ah
Everybody who pushed me to get where I'm now
Thank you mom

Thank you, ah
Thank you family
Thank you Jesus
