

Silly Girls

Estelle

Mama said silly girls, they always wanted love
And pretty girls protect their heart too much
'Cause it was trouble from the start
A woman and her heart, I

Knew that you were bad for me
'Cause you could never be for me when I want, yeah
Handsome face you'd go crazy
Second gaze I'd feel hazy, you're the ones, ahhhh

And I hope for once I could trust you
'Cause I could feel so much I could [?] you
And I want to live [?] by you
But it don't look good up in the rearview, my mom

She said silly girls, they always wanted love
And pretty girls protect their heart too much
'Cause it was trouble from the start
A woman and her heart, I

Still ain't giving no answers
But I keep on taking these chances with my love, yeah yeah
You see what's a life without passion
Even when you're [?], I choose love, I choose love

Oh I live the life that I'm living
I give the love that I'm giving
And I might not give it that often
'Cause my momma told me use caution, my mom

She said silly girls, they always wanted love
And pretty girls protect their heart too much
'Cause it was trouble from the start
A woman and her heart, I

(A woman and her heart, yeah)
Woman and heart yeah, heart yeah, heart yeah
(A woman and her heart, yeah)
Woman and heart yeah, heart yeah, heart yeah, heart yeah, ooooh
(A woman and her heart, yeah) I still, choose love
