

A Very Intense Battle

Estradasphere

What does today bring
All is well, downtown
How will I help myself
To this land!

Battle!
Cutting, gouging, slicing for God
The savages here are so very intense.
Bathe in a fountain of blood
And sip victorious the divine plan.

War makes peace?
Then it's all for sale.
Buildings hold down the dead
This is what the eagle sees.

Battle!
So how's that coffee,
Very intense?
Tell me now, can you taste the blood.
Sunday we'll go for a hike
But Monday I'll destroy that forest.

There's no peace
Only now we'll eat
From plastic and stone
This is what the eagle sees.

I'm scared to close my eyes
To hear the chanting below, downtown
We shall arise
