

Farther Away

Evanescence

I took their smiles and I made them mine
I sold my soul just to hide the light
And now I see what I really am,
A thief, a whore, and a liar!

I run to you
(far away from this hell)
Call out your name
(giving up, giving in)
I see you there farther away
(still you are, farther away!)

I'm numb to you - numb and deaf and blind.
You give me all but the reason why.
I reach but I feel only air at night.
Not you, not love, just nothing.

I run to you
(far away from this hell)
Call out your name
(giving up, giving in)
I see you there farther away!
(still you are, farther away!)

Tried to forget you
but without you I feel nothing
Don't leave me here, by myself
I can't breathe!

I run to you
(far away from this hell)
Call out your name
(giving up giving in)
I see you there farther away!
(still you are, farther away!)

I run to you
(far away from this hell)
Call out your name
(giving up, giving in)
I see you there farther away!
(still you are, farther away!)

Farther away!
Farther away!
Farther away!
Farther away!
Farther away!
