

Stop Sign

Everlife

I won't give up so easily
This life means way too much to me
You never know, you never know, never know
If you don't, if you don't
If you don't go and find out how
To have a lucky love, admit it now
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh

Sometimes I feel like
I take the wind for granted
And every times, I
I lift my hands to find it
Some days, I catch myself
Just blowing through the motions
And other days, I have
No fear, no fear

Never thought that I could fly
Never crossed my mind

I won't give up so easily
This life means way too much to me
It's only done when we stop fighting
You never win if you give up trying
Let's all stand up, wake up the crowd
It's all about the here and now
You never know, you never know, never know
If you don't, if you don't
If you don't go and find out how
To have a lucky love, admit it now
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh

Sometimes I tell myself (I tell myself)
I have a fear of falling
But really, I
I hear adventure calling
We live our daily lives (Daily lives)
They keep hope undercover
To keep the truth alive
Honestly, you should be our brother

Never thought that I could fly
Never crossed my mind

I won't give up so easily
This life means way too much to me
It's only done when we stop fighting
You never win if you give up trying
Let's all stand up, wake up the crowd
It's all about the here and now
You never know, you never know, never know
If you don't, if you don't
If you don't go and find out how

To have a lucky love, admit it now
Oh oh oh oh

I lift my hands out the roof of my car
Feel the wind, it reminds me of who we are
More than a body, more than a mind
More than the number on a bank statement top line, top line
I wanna know, I wanna know just what it feels like
To live free, don't wanna be chained to a stop sign
I'm ready, I get it, I gotta shake it up
I'm ready, you're ready, let's join the chorus
Oh whoa

I won't give up so easily
This life means way too much to me
It's only done when we stop fighting
You never win if you give up trying
Let's all stand up, wake up the crowd
It's all about the here and now
You never know, you never know, never know
If you don't, if you don't
If you don't go and find out how
If you don't, if you don't go and find out how
To have a lucky love, admit it now
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
