

Chronicles

Example

When life throws us obstacles
And nothing seems fair at all
Impossible's possible
'Cause you take us there, mm

Give and take, give and take
Learn from our mistakes
And give each other breaks
When we're rattling the snakes in the place of adversity
I'll be waiting at the gates
With a coffee and a hug
You bottle it all up
For your running out of luck
Run over by a truck
'Cause life is being such a little dick at times
Makes you wanna run

But I will pick you up
So, girl, fall over
Stuck in a rut
Then call me over
Feeling hungover
I wanna get closer
Cold in October
Then I'll be your shoulder
Yeah, I will pick you up
So, girl, fall over
Stuck in a rut
Then call me over
Lacking composure
I wanna get closer
Then I'll be your shoulder

When life throws us obstacles
And nothing seems fair at all
Impossible's possible
'Cause you take us there
Feelings ain't optional
And these are our chronicles
Impossible's possible
And you take us there
And true love isn't scared
True love isn't scared
True love isn't scared
True love isn't scared

Been awake, been awake
A lot is on your plate
You wanna throw the towel in
Your heart is heavy pounding
Not loving these surroundings
Don't know if you can wait
I know you battle through enough
To the smooth of the rut
Find it hard to trust
But put trust in us
If life is being such a little dick at times

You still don't have to run

But I will pick you up
So, girl, fall over
Then call me over
Feeling hungover
Yeah, I will pick you up
So, girl, fall over
Then call me over
Lacking composure
I wanna get closer
Then I'll be your shoulder

When life throws us obstacles

And true love isn't scared
True love isn't scared

Oh, I ain't bothered 'bout tomorrow if it ain't with you

I will pick you up
So, girl, fall over
