

Watch The Sun Come Up

Example

How can I explain it scratchin my brain
How can 10 hours feel like 10 years?
I cry 10 mens tears as it disappears
With the passionate atmosphere
Took your glove as a souvenir
Left the other on the pillow as I stroked your ear
Took one last sniff of your hair, stared for a second
Then the doorway beckoned
Im a lover not a fighter
So I didnt fight the fact that I more than liked ya
Didnt matter we were under influence
Made sense this was more than lust
I dont owe you, you dont owe me
One night only, if only
I could take you back and just show you off
But I guess if I did that, the magic is lost

Believe me I wanna stay
But Im off and away

Hey, Good Morning
Watch The Sun Come Up
Its calling
I want another day with you

You and that red dress - What a pairing
I kept staring, couldnt have said less
Cant let my head rest, thinking about ya,
Really wanna look into your catwoman eyes
Turn back time, cos it flies by
You know, them Marty McFly vibes
See, I can picture the bright lights
Sights and night skies and boats go by
I dont why it happened so fast
When I tried to speak your language Im happy you laughed
Cos Im hardly a linguist
Spoke through kisses cos you didnt speak English
And It was hard to distinguish
Love at first sight or holiday romance?
Dont care I was lost in the moment
I really shoulda missed that flight

Believe me I wanna stay
But Im going away

Hey, Good Morning
Watch The Sun Come Up
Its calling
I want another day with you
Hey, Good Morning
Watch The Sun Come Up
Its calling
I want another day with you

I dont think I could be dreaming I felt your touch
No I remember you breathing when I woke up
Now I all I have are these memories I cant trust

Just one day it wont be enough

Hey, Good Morning
Watch The Sun Come Up
Its calling
I want another day with you
Hey, Good Morning
Watch The Sun Come Up
Its calling
I want another day with you
