

To the Ends of the Earth

Exmortus

Mocking madness, great unrest
Caught in what seems an endless war
Cruel injustice, life bereft
Freedom is what we're fighting for
No more living oppressed
Strength is put to the test
Revolution and rebirth
We must go to the ends of the Earth

Vile warmongers rule the land
Stay in power, prey on the weak
Death and misery, they plan
Devastation, havoc they wreak
No more living oppressed
Strength, put to the test
Revolution and rebirth
We must go to the ends of the Earth

Metal monsters, black the sky
Domination, we're left to crawl
Through the darkness we defy
Violence, bloodshed, empires fall
No more living oppressed
Strength, put to the test
Revolution and rebirth
We must go to the ends of the Earth
