

?? (Moonlight)

Exo

Yeah, stop, stop. Those wings will get wet oh, stop, stop
In the gap between a deepening day you come slowly
The darkness skims by and wakes me up
And across the open window receding away

Have you, you, you lost your way again
The night air is still cold, get up
So, baby, hold on I'm worried of leaving you alone
I leave the road and follow behind you

You shower in the pouring moonlight
I haven't seen that entrancing expression before
I look at you who's stopped like a picture and at the end of that gaze

A place where I can't touch you and can't even hold you
What's shining under the surface is not that person
Your sad story that can't come true
The closer you go, the more you'll hurt, so
Just that love stop, stop, stop, stop, yeah
Just that love stop, stop, stop, stop, yeah
Like this I'm anxiously calling you
Don't go babe, those wings will get wet

No matter how much I tell you, you don't listen
You throw your whole body towards him again
Why do you dream a dangerous dream
(Now stop those tiring [actions]) So that your heart can rest a little
My heart watching you feels as if it'll rip as well

You shower in the pouring moonlight
I haven't seen that entrancing expression before
I look at you who's stopped like a picture and at the end of that gaze

A place where I can't touch you and can't even hold you
What's shining under the surface is not that person
Your sad story that can't come true
The closer you go, the more you'll hurt, so
Just that love stop, stop, stop, stop, yeah
Just that love stop, stop, stop, stop, yeah
Like this I'm anxiously calling you
Don't go babe, those wings will get wet

Like nothing happened you try
Even though you're smiling towards me
Your slender and pale shoulders shake a little, I'm telling you
It's okay if you let everything go and rest at my side for just a little while
When the sun rises, follow the place where the moon gets dark, fly away then
, yeah

A place where I can't touch you and we can't be together
What's shining under the surface is not that person
Your sad story that can't come true
The closer you go, the more you'll hurt, so
Just that love stop, stop, stop, stop, yeah
Just that love stop, stop, stop, stop, yeah
Like this I'm anxiously calling you

Don't go babe, those wings will get wet

(Stop) those wings will get wet (stop) those wings will get wet
