

Devil's Teeth

Exodus

Their black flag searing in the water
Encapsulating in the darkest fear
A nightmare of evolution
You're now the hunted, that is perfectly clear

Lurking from the lifeless depths
You've now become its next screaming meal
Piece by piece you are devoured
Eternal life ???

With a maniac smile, those eyes of death
From out of the abyss, teeth tearing flesh
Black eyes turn white, with every vicious bite
Your end has come

Like a violent abstract painter
His paint a gusher of your blood
Hit and run, bleed you out
Decapitation his only true love

Cutting through flesh and bone
Been around for a hundred million years
Surviving forkable extinctions
His presence brings heartstopping fear

With a maniac smile, those eyes of death
From out of the abyss, teeth tearing flesh
Black eyes turn white, with every vicious bite
Your end has come

The most ??? godless monster
So ??? adapted for its rule
When its black knives turn, goes in wide
Only death will be the story that unfolds

What you have seen of this spawn from hell
The last of the untamed beast
The ultimate apex predator
You better pray you never meet

With a maniac smile, those eyes of death
From out of the abyss, teeth tearing flesh
Black eyes turn white, with every vicious bite
Your end has come
