Unveiling the Obscure

Extol

In a place of peace and confidence Bring us to complete unity

Adopted, chosen - seekers of light

May all be one, like You are one So we can see the glory of the Son

Conversion - a new perception of reality
Relinquish - in pursuit of relief, unyielding peace
Despised, rejected - for the sake of a name

Wisdom, vigor - transposed to the willing Unveiling the obscure - the concealed truth Anticipated Messiah - visible in the flesh Believing, accepting - inseparable Father and Son

May all be one, like You are one So we can see the glory of the Son

Guidance and strength - provided to endure Alienated, separated - yet part of the scheme Purified by blood - protected from malice Enabled to testify - declaring eternal life

In a place of peace and confidence Bring us to complete unity You have overcome the world A new way for humanity
