

Awakening to Dream

F.O.B.

wake up, can't believe your eyes
this is not your world
cold and dark
but you don't wish to be alone and far from people you're talking things you have never thought about you will conclude to absolution by yourself

shadows of mind
you'll never cry
escape from vision of the dark

return to your life
it doesn't seem grey now seeking beauty where the other can't see

believe in yourself
