It's really easy if you try
To tell another hundred lies
But I'm not going down this time

Just when I think I'm over it It's getting easy to forget I haven't even faced it yet

I never wanted anyone to be so wrong for you

Stop falling down

I don't have anyone to blame

I can't make anybody change

I guess there's nothing more to say

I never wanted anyone to be so wrong for you

Stop falling down

I won't believe it if you say that you will change

I won't release you from responsibility

I never wanted to come down on you this way

I never wanted

It's really easy if you try
To tell another hundred lies
But I'm not going down this time

I never wanted anyone to be so wrong for you

Stop falling down
