

You Don't Understand

Faith Evans

Is it a game that we're playing.
It seems like the cloudy days .
Keep coming in my life, whoa.
Is it a game that we're playing .
You don't understand.
Your love is taking over me.

I know you wonder,
why I sometimes cry.
When I should be happy.
To have you in my life.
But you don't understand the changes,
I've been going through,
Just to be happy.
I need you by my side.
(Baby just spend some time)

Is it a game that we're playing.
It seems like the cloudy days .
Keep coming in my life, whoa.
Is it a game that we're playing .
You don't understand.
Your love is taking over me.

Sometimes we said,
we'd try to make it right.
But so many other things
are getting in the way.
All we got to do is lean on each other
to make it happen.
There's nothing more left to say.
(Nothing that we can say)

And I'm going crazy.
Trying to do it by myself.
But I really need your help.
Baby please,
listen to me,
I'm down on my knees.
Baby please,
don't walk away.

Is it a game that we're playing.
It seems like the cloudy days .
Keep coming in my life, whoa.
Is it a game that we're playing .
You don't understand.
Your love is taking over me.

Is it a game that we're playing.
It seems like the cloudy days .
Keep coming in my life, whoa.
Is it a game that we're playing .
You don't understand.
Your love is taking over me.

And I'm going crazy.

Trying to do it by myself.
But I really need your help.
Baby please,
listen to me,
I'm down on my knees.
Baby please,
don't walk away.

Baby I love you.
and I want you to know,
If you love me baby,
just let your feelings show ...
