

Black Moon Rising

Falconer

Seek the golden key
that opens blessed doors.
Seek it high and seek it low cherish it forever more.
Heaven's out of reach
for fondling hands of yours.
Turn around and burn your eyes.
Don't look back as shadows die.

Sworn to share no more tears.
Another El Dorado pet appears.

On burning wings you fly
into a dead horizon.
The sun sets forever more
do you see the black moon rising?

Dance to the rhythm of fire
the flames will make you blind.
Ascend the rainbow way up high
to the crest where dreamers die.
Through the desert of discontent
in his hour of need
walks the fool on a wicked trail
lost in dunes chasing his own tail.

Sworn to share no more tears.
Another El Dorado pet appears.

On burning wings you fly
into a dead horizon.
The sun sets forever more
do you see the black moon rising?

On burning wings you fly
into a dead horizon.
The sun sets forever more
do you see the black moon rising?
