

China Blue

Fancy

Deep from the dark side of the night turning up into the light Calling you
my China Blue.
I feel a wish made of desire ending up in burning fire
I don't care if love is true.
One night with you
my China Blue
girl of the night
make me brand-new I'm calling you
my China Blue
my fever burns 'cause I want you.
Our silhouettes are one in all shadows dancing on the wall Hand in hand a rise and fall.
You save me inside in a spin real love is not a sin
Can you hear the heaven call ?
One night with you
my China Blue
girl of the night
make me brand-new

One million dreams
one million fears
- never ending up in tears
One million lights
one million nights
turning up and disappear Unspoken words can never hurt
- can't break a heart in two -
If wrong or right
It's up to you. - loving you
my China Blue -
Deep from the dark side of the night turning up into the light
