

Damaged

Fear Factory

Consequences that had left me for dead
Repercussions that went straight to your head
Trusting in no one
Believing in nothing
Living in a world of pure deception

So far this life is contemptuous
His mind, a gun, so relentless

Damn! I am damaged for life!
Damn! like I've been crucified!
Damn! I am damaged for life
And I can't believe I'm alive!

Determined to destroy all that you know
Conceal your lies in the web you compose
Trusting in no one
Believing in nothing
Living in a world of pure deception

So far this life is contemptuous
This mind, a gun, so relentless

Damn! I am damaged for life!
Damn! like I've been crucified!
Damn! I am damaged for life
And I can't believe I'm alive!
