

All or Nothing

Fiction Factory

Ooh, come to me
This is your only chance

I am abrupt - as far as words will allow
But believe me, I can play such games
You are the trash that makes this love lust worthwhile
And I'll say the strangest things
Yes, I'll say the strangest things

Ooh, come to me
This is your only chance
Ooh, drain me dry
I can see all the things that you want to be
It's all or nothing
Nothing

As yet my dreams I tell you nothing but lies
And you leave me your goodbyes today
Then you twist my words until the truth reappears
Work this thing to the ground and I'll live for that day

Ooh, come to me
This is your only chance
Ooh, drain me dry
I can see all the things that you want from me
It's all or nothing
No, no, no, it's all or nothing

And I'll say the strangest things
Yes, I'll say the strangest things

How about talk to me and make everything clear to me
It turns to nothing, how turns to nothing?

Ooh, come to me
This is your only chance
Ooh, drain me dry
I can see all the things that you want to be
It's all or nothing
No, no, no, nothing
