All along the water's edge The ripples curl and bend As the moon bleeds "Satire's no match for a matter of fact." (That's blasphemy) There's got to be another way I wrote it down in blood "Never forget my love" Faith as endearing as the other side Before nightfall cast a broken shadow much Too tall "Look, it's just me" Graveyard pulls apart the earth revealing All the broken hearts I'm not the only one who bleeds I Wrote it down in blood Never forget my love Faith as endearing as the other side I'm on this freight train with creeping suspicion, hell to pay (glassy eyeballs feeling red, painful voices in your head) And he walked to the stone to engrave His claim of a thousand souls filled With shame reaching to the highest Notch at the top With the blood of his wisdom he began To call on the names of The vain and the week willed alike "I will have you" Anoint you wrap you in lies, to Devour you all in the blink of an eye in the presence Of his majesty The rise and fall of the hands that begat the Writing on the wall dripping with Blood "never forget my love" It's criminal, more than you know The loss in your eyes It's critical It's critical now The look in my eye I have damned myself To hear this out

I wrote it down in blood

Never forget my love

Faith as endearing as the other side

I'm on this freight train with derailed suspicions

Writing it all down in blood
