

Love Ain't What It Seems

Firefall

Now haven't you cried enough for him
And hey didn't you do your best to win
And tho' love seemed to come and go
Don't let it break your heart in two-I'm telling you

Now that you've lost the game again
Hey, don't you believe that it's the end
Time washes away the pain
Leavin' you with a brand new heart
You gotta brand new start
