

Old Wing Mouth

Firefall

Red mud as thick as blood a curiosity of slaves
Old wing mouth talks about Jesus
And he talks about how he saves
He's comin' back to scare you he'll be here have no fear
I'll just hold on to this bottom land 'till God gets here

Old wing mouth

Well he hasn't seen his woman in 190 days
He's going to love her forever
He's going to love her with pain
You might say that he's going to love
'Till God comes back again
