Somehow I find hope in your voice
It's caressing every moment
Oh soft and strong oh you're so young
You have never seen us the way I do
I see it through your eyes
Lost and found I'm lost not found
I see it through your eyes

Give me some pleasure
Give some joy
Just give me something
That I can't destroy

You have never seen your face in repose
you have never seen us the way I do
I see it through your eyes
