

All We Are

Fischerspooner

The breaking light
Sparks the human strain
And it is the dawn
Relentless again

With endless arms
Hot, holy light
Radiates and then it all begins

R:
We are as one and one is all we are
We are as one and one is all we are

Inhaling quick
When I see your being
Can't define
The divine
And I'm born again
The limitless is within my reach
Particles passing through a microcosm
That is all we are

R: (x2)

I can't define
It is divine
