When the world is empty of souls
It will become so clean
When the world is empty of souls
It will become so clean

Silent death. Assimilation

Hammers of seven hells fall from above

Settle the final debt, forced adaptation

Void of regret, absent of love

Subdue the lands until they bow at the broken will of man Inescapable fate

The earth will swallow all that it can

Until it finally reclaims the hell we create

When the world is empty of souls It will become so clean When the world is empty of souls It will become so clean

Terraform

Annihilation, the human curse Worthless warnings, terror swarming Self preservation, ancient rebirth Endless mourning, terraforming

Silent death
Silent death
Hammers of seven hells fall from above
