Beautiful Girls

Five Times August

Well IDve seen beautiful girls TheyDre always going to be around And IDve seen beautiful girls TheyDre always going to turn me down

So where did this come from? Did I find a new home? Did I finally see what I was waiting for? And where did my heart go When I wrote the song slow? Did I finally see what I was waiting for?

Eyesite set on the world And no onels going to slow me down With no mind set on the girl No onels going to let me drown

So why do I care now? Did I find a new town? Did I finally see what I was waiting for? And why do I say things That I donOt mean lately? Did I finally see what I was waiting for?

□Cause they know about me Well I□m the nice guy coming in last And they think I□m only The shy guy without any class And they think I□m alone But they□ll never know Those beautiful girls

So lipstick, how to kiss, Fashion tips that wrap around your hips Baby IOm not into it, The magazines and fashion trends you hold on to

And maybe that Ds un-cool But ID11 set a new rule To judge on the heart, DonDt you judge in the mirror We may be a long way But that Ds all that I can say YouDve gotta get a little closer Get a little closerD

DCause they know about me Well IDm the nice guy coming in last And they think IDm only The shy guy without any class And they think IDm alone But theyDll never know Those beautiful girls

 $\Box Cause$ they know about me Well $\Box \Box m$ the nice guy coming in last

And they think IDm only The shy guy without any class And they think IDm alone But theyDll never know No theyDll never know Those beautiful girls
