

If They Move, Shoot 'Em

Flaming Lips

And you'll start to notice
That their screaming gets high
As they're taken over by the fear
It's like starting over
When you thought you've arrived
Try to remember
Its just a game, no one really dies

Once you get beyond it
All your feelings change
If they move, shoot 'em
Is all you'll need to decide
If there's god in heaven
Then he, wouldn't lie
Try to remember
Its just a game, no one really dies
