

I see the void in the eyes of men
A throng that sinks into the sludge of mediocrity
The deafening buzzing of a swarm
Passively sucked into the vortex of ignorance

I've got no respect
A progeny of philistines spreads
I can't stand the deceit infecting the world

Forever burn!
Oh flame of wisdom, burn
Come purify this wretched spawn from the bastard ones
Suppress the murmur of the faith, restore a cosmic silence
Let our goddess Reason rule again this miserable world

Crowding the temple of delirium
The consecrated mausoleum of Genius

Idiotic herd soiling Masters' legacy
Martyred themselves for the sake of Rationalism
Hush Galileo, deny Cartesian doubt Stubbornly sink rotten roots in their dry flat earth

Be gone!

Shut up!
You deplorable mass, antagonists of progress
Shut up!
Scientific method foes, hushed by deduction
Silence!
As drug is not the plague, bow down before the intellect
Shut up!
You superstitious rats, erased forever

Burn!
Inflame the passion of wise men
Together as one
Suffer the fury of the Reason ad libitum
